

ATTENTION LICENSURE APPLICANTS:

The Georgia Board of Podiatry Examiners no longer requires licensure applicants to take the Georgia Podiatry Practical Licensure Exam (GAPPLE).

Applicants for licensure as a Podiatrist in Georgia must still provide verification of the passage of the NBPME Part's I, II and III (also known as the PMLexis).

The applications have been updated to reflect this change effective August 3, 2009. The application fee is $ 50.00

Please do not submit an old application and fee ($195.00)

Only submit applications with a revised date of August 3, 2009 (found in bottom right hand corner of application).
