

Friends of Georgia Archives and History
Lunch & Learn Lecture Series
September—December 2010

Effective October 1, 2010 the hours available for public visitation to the Georgia Archives will change to Thursday through Saturday 8:30am to 5:00pm. This is an unfortunate action we must take to meet the difficult budget environment facing all State Agencies.

Lunch and Learn lectures, normally held on the second Tuesday of each month, have been rescheduled (where possible) for the second Thursday of each month.

Tuesday, September 14

Georgia's Sacred Architecture: The Bible Belt and Much, Much More

W. Ray Luce, Director, Historic Preservation Division, DNR, Retired

Churches are among America's most important historic resources. This presentation will put Georgia's religious structures into an historical and architectural context.

Thursday, October 14

The Mystery of Daniel Appling's Sword

David Carmicheal, Director, Georgia Archives

Learn more about this Georgia hero from the war of 1812, his military service, and the mysterious history of his ceremonial sword.

Thursday, November 11

No Program—Veteran's Day

Thursday, December 9

Tape Is Not Your Friend: The Care of Historical Records

Tina Seetoo, Conservator, Georgia Archives

Find out how to care for your records and learn more about some of the special projects the Archives is undertaking.

It's free!
12 noon to 1 p.m.

Bring a lunch to eat during the program.
